SHAH Alam City Council (MBSA) is offering 50% discount on selected summonses, in conjunction with Ramadan and Hari Raya Aidilfitri festive season.

From now to June 23, the public can get a 50% discount for compound notices issued under eight by-laws that cover vandalism, food establishments and illegal advertisements as well as stalls.

The public can settle their parking fines at a RM30 flat rate at any MBSA branch office or at the Shah Alam-On-Wheels mobile counter.

MBSA assistant administrative officer Puspasari Aminuddin said the discount offers would end on June 23, at MBSA branch offices and Shah Alam On Wheels.

"After June 23, there will not be anymore 50% discounts given.

"The RM30 flat rate for parking summons will still be available after June 23, but only at Shah Alam On Wheels," she said.

At the Shah Alam-On-Wheels mobile counter, ratepayers can speak to MBSA Licensing officers regarding house renovation approvals.

The public can also buy parking coupons, pay assessment tax and give feedback or report faulty streetlights or potholes in their respective areas.

Puspasari said there would be revised times and dates for the Shah Alam On Wheels schedule

this month. 11
